5 p.m., TRIUMPH CLUB de France general meeting

Briefing, Champagne, Dinner and night at the hotel

Friday 11th or Saturday 12th May according to the group you will have chosen :

Circuit A:

Morning, visit to the Notre Dame cathedral in Reims, built during XIII century, it is one of the most famous gothic cathedrals in France.

It is also the most prestigious as 25 French kings have been crowned there from Louis VIII (1223) to Charles X (1825)

Guided visit to the champagne cellar of «De CASTELLANE» at EPERNAY with champagne tasting.

Lunch at «l'Auberge Champenoise» in MOUSSY, close to Epernay.

An afternoon drive through the “Cote des Blancs vineyard” and along the banks of the Marne river.

Briefing, champagne, dinner and night at the hotel.

Circuit B :

Morning. Stop over and visit to the ex Grand prix circuit “REIMS-GUEUX”. The association « les Amis du circuit de Gueux » will explain circuit history and their restoration project, in order to organize historical races.

Of course, Les amis du circuit de Gueux are passionately fond of classic cars.

A short drive around the champagne vineyard, and lunch at « Ferme de Presles ».

Afternoon. Excursion to « la Montagne de Reims », then on to « Faux de Verzy » which are a natural curiosity, and end with a visit to « Fort de la POMPELLE », one of eight fortifications built during 1880-1883 to defend REIMS. Within this fort there is a First World War museum.

Friday, briefing, champagne, dinner and night at the hotel

Saturday 12 may 2018. Musical Gala evening in the MUMM champagne cellar.

Journey there & back to the hotel by bus.

Sunday 13th may

New excursion through the vineyard to reach château de REVEILLON where we will enjoy lunch bringing to an end our 30^{ème} TRIUMPH EVENT.
